DDGA Committee News

The AGM was held at Dalby Golf Club on October 8.
The DDGA committee for 2022 is:

President: Jim Miller.

Secretary: Colin Hoey.

Treasurer: Greg Moore.

Committee members: Shane Smith, Paul Donnelly, Brendon Landrigan, John Taylor.

Neil Gilshenan, is the DDGA Delegate and Des Thies, continues as the Patron of the DDGA.

As displayed above some new faces have been elected to the committee.

The outgoing President Barry Volp did not seek re-election and we thank Barry sincerely for the time and effort he has given to golf on the Downs. He has served the association in many ways and always with the advancement of golf his main priority.

Thank you also to Bill Macmaw and Norm Mitchell for their time on the committee giving their time freely for the golfing community. Bill for two years and Norm for 9 years.

Life Membership

The meeting unanimously elected Neil Gilshenan as a Life member of the DDGA. Neil has given outstanding service since being elected to the committee in 2007. Neil, below left accepted the award from new President Jim Miller.
